DYNAMITE USED

In Attempt to Break Jail Here Last Saturday Night But Their Effort Was a Failure.

A quantity of dynamite was in some manner smuggled into the jail here last Saturday by some one with a view of wrecking the building and liberating the prisoners.

There was at the time fourteen confined there, among them were three prisoners from Leslie county and one from Laurel, all brought here for safe keeping. One of the Leslie prisoners is under a life sentence for murder and the one from Laurel has a twenty-one year sentence before him for murder.

The explosion, which was set off on the steel floor on the inside, did little damage and caused the officials to be more cautious in regard to the safety of the prisoners.

A thorough search revealed the fact that there were several other charges of dynamite, saws, files, etc., concealed within the jail an investigation revealed the fact that they had been bought of a local dealer by a woman supposed to be a confederate of one of the prisoners.

Lizzie Shoup was arrested charged with furnishing the dynamite and given an examining trial before Judge Sampson and sent to jail to await the Circuit Court.

The prisoners were brought out and questioned and finally some of them weakened and confessed the entire plot.

One of the prisoners had secured a saw with which he had cut some of the bolts and pried up the edge of one of the sheets of steel, placed a part of a stick of dynamite under it and set it off. They then kicked the stove over and told the jailer when he entered that a negro boy had thrown a cartridge in the stove, but the smell of dynamite gave them away and the real work was soon discovered and their plans thwarted.

Jailer Buchanan has only had control of the jail since January 1st, and he has to be congratulated upon the prompt action which prevented a wholesale delivery.

Among the renewals this week for another year is Edward England.

SHALL WE HAVE

A Public Vault Erected in Our Cemetery With the Opening of Spring?

We have heard a number of expressions since our first article appeared upon this subject, and not one has as yet spoken against it, but all have agreed that it would be a good thing and should be built.

We have discussed the subject with Messrs. Stewart & Doodney, of this city, and they tell us that a handsome vault can be erected there at prices varying from $750 and up, according to style and dimensions. They have some beautiful designs and are prepared to do the work if we can arrange to have it built, and we hope that the Directors of the Cemetery will take this matter up, and if there is no other way to raise the money let it be done by popular subscription, and it will only be a short time until there would be sufficient means at the command of the company to accomplish the desired result.

Let's make an effort, if we fail it is better to try and fail than to never try at all.

SUCCESSFUL RAID

Made on Moonshine Still by M. G. Hignite and His Deputies.

M. G. Hignite, revenue officer, accompanied by George Smith, Charley Sproules, Wm. Messamore, Bob Smith and J. F. Golden, made a successful moonshine raid along the Knox-Laurel border the latter part of last week.

On Hunting Shirt creek, this county, a still was raided and two shiners captured, and on Blackwater creek, Laurel county, they had the same success, destroying a still and capturing three operators.

The four shiners were taken to London Sunday to await the action of the Federal Court. Mr. Hignite says he is not through, but will proceed with the work.

A RESOLUTION.

Whereas, We recognize the landing upon our shores of the ignorant, the vicious, the lawless, the aged, the imbecile, the weak-minded and of poor physique, and the paupers of the Old World as a constant menace to our institutions, and believe that it should be viewed with alarm by all loyal and patriotic citizens of the entire country, and

Whereas, Notorious abuses have resulted from careless and unlawful granting of citizenship to aliens; therefore be it Resolved, That we urge upon the Senators and Congressmen the importance of the enactment of laws to restrict immigration by an increase of the head tax, the educational test, a thorough physical examination and a more rigid inspection at the port of embarkation, and be it further

Resolved, That we urge upon the Senators and Congressmen the importance of a revision of our system of naturalization by the enactment of such laws as will require uniformity of naturalization certificates, confine the jurisdiction of naturalizing aliens to the United States Courts, and permit no alien to be naturalized or entitled to the privileges of an elector until he shall have resided within the United States ten years at least, and is able to read intelligently and write.

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was adopted at a regular meeting of McKinley Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, held on the 5th day of January, A. D., 1906, and that this Council has membership of 41, in good standing.

[SEAL.] J. P. FOX, Recording Secretary.

THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

EASILY GIVEN.

It was only a sunny smile,
And little it cost in giving.
But it scattered the night
Like morning light,
And made the day worth living.
Thru life's dull warp a woof it wove
In shining colors of light and love,
And the angels smiled as they watch'd
above,
Yet little it costs in giving.

It was only a kind word,
And a word that was lightly spoken,
Yet in vain,
For it stilled the pain
Of a heart that was nearly broken
It strengthened a fate beset by fears
And groping blindly through mists of tears.

For light to brighten the coming years,
Although it was lightly spoken.
It was only a helping hand,
And it seemed of little availing,
But its clasps were warm,
And it saved from harm
A brother whose strength was failing.

Its touch was as tender as angel's wings,
But it rolled the stone from the hidden springs,
And pointed the way to higher things,
Although it seemed of little availing.
A smile, a word, or a touch,
And each is easily given,
Yet one may win
A soul from sin,
Or smooth the way to heaven
A smile may lighten the failing heart,
A word may soften pain's keenest smart,
A touch may lead us from sin apart,
How easily each is given!

If there is a stone, stump or other unsightly object in the yard, plant some morning glories, cypress vines, canary flowers and balloon vines (love puffs) around it. You'll be glad it was there before the summer is over. Do the same way the mind. If dark, ugly thoughts persist in obstructing themselves, plant flowers around them and they will disappear.

MARRIAGE binds a man and woman so closely that one cannot suffer without making the other miserable. Bear and forbear; give the best we have. A spirit of gentleness toward those who are harsh will often turn away their wrath. A dignified acceptance of the situation and patient, cheerful, persistent effort to make the most of what is left to us in life will win the respect of those about us and put us on the road to serene endurance, if not to happiness.

NO one can be healthy and happy without an aim in life. If it be to win some worldly distinction, it is well; if it be to achieve nobility of character, it is better. If we can learn to perform each duty that is set before us carefully and serenely, without delay and without haste, we are reaching a higher plane of life. We see how few are the things that are absolutely necessary for comfort and happiness, for that quiet, peaceful living that all men desire. If external things distract us let us follow the advice of Marcus Aurelius: "Give thyself to learn something new and good, and cease to be whirled about."

WE may, if we choose, make the worst of one another. Everyone has his faults; we may make the worst of these; we may fix our attention constantly upon their blemishes and also make the best of one another, we may forgive even as we hope to be forgiven. We may put ourselves in the place of others and ask what we should wish to be done to us, and thought of us if we were in their place. By loving whatever is lovable in those around us love will flow back from them to us and life will be a pleasure instead of a pain; and earth will become like heaven; and we shall become not unworthy followers of him whose name is Love.

SOME years ago twenty thousand people gathered in the old Castle Garden, New York, to hear Jenny Lind sing, as no other songstress ever had sung, the sublime compositions of Beethoven, Handel, etc. At length the Swedish nightingale thought of her home, paused and seemed to fold her wings for a higher flight. She began with deep emotion to pour forth "Home, Sweet Home." The audience could not stand it. An uproar of applause stopped the music. Tears gushed from the eyes of that vast multitude like rain. After a moment, the song came again, seemingly as from heaven—almost angelic, "Home, Sweet Home." Home was the word that bound, with a spell, twenty thousand souls, and Howard Payne triumphed over the great masters of song.

RELIGION AT HOME.

Religion, if in heaven truly attired, Needs only to be seen to be admired.

—Cowper.

Our greatest writers all agree that religion affords home security and happiness removes family friction and causes all complicated wheels of the home machinery to move on smoothly. When dark and sad days begin to shadow the home, what can cheer and brighten the sinking heart like turning to One who can make the tears of sorrow to be the real pearls of the brightest crown? What does a home become with religion as its life and rule? Human nature is checked and moulded by the amiable spirit and lovely character of Jesus. The heart is softened, sentiments refined, passions subdued, hopes elevated, purposes ennobled, world cast into the shade and heaven realized as the first prize. The great want of our intellectual and moral nature is here met and home education becomes impregnated with the spirit and elements of preparation for eternity. Like manna it will feed our souls, quench our thirst, sweeten the cup of life and shed a halo of glory and gladness around our fireside. Let yours, therefore, be the religious home and God will delight to dwell therein and his blessings will descend, like the dew of Heaven, upon it. Yours will be the home of love and harmony, of family hopes and happiness.

Good morals will be the crowning attribute of your peaceful home, "the crown of living stars," that shall adorn the right of tribulation, and the pillar of the cloud and of fire in the pilgrimage to a better country. It will strew the family threshold with the flowers of promise and enshrine the memories of loved ones gone before in all the fragrance of that blessed hope of reunion in Heaven which looms up from a dying hour. It shall give to the infant soul its perfect flowering and expand it in all its fullness of a generous love making "lustrous in the livery of divine knowledge." Then in the dark hour of home separation and bereavement, when the question is put to the mourning parents, "It is well with the child, is it well with thee?" You can answer it with joy. "It is well."

To Hunters.

If you would know of a country which abounds in turkey, duck, quail, squirrels, and other small game, with many a good chance at deer, get a copy of the new booklet, "Feathers and Fins on the Frisco." It tells all about hunting and fishing in the Ozarks and in the St. Francis Valley, sent free on request by addressing A. Hilton, G. P. A., Frisco System, St. Louis, Mo.

Why Buy McClure's?

McClure's Magazine is bought and read in homes not because it is a magazine, but because it is the magazine. Why?

FIRST—THE PRICE. It costs but one dollar a year less than 10 cents a number, for over thirteen two-column pages of reading matter. This amounts in actual bulk to twenty or twenty-five books costing anywhere from a dollar to two dollars a volume.

SECOND—QUALITY. The reading matter is written by America's leading writers—the best short story writers on timely articles, the best writers of important serials, such as Schurz's Reminiscences or Baker's Railroad articles.

THIRD—TIMELINESS. The reading matter in McClure's is not only good; it is not only entertaining, amusing, instructive and inspiring; it is also about the subjects in which you and all Americans are most interested at the time. No subjects in the next twelve months are going to be so important as the question of railroad rates and rebates and the question of life insurance. Both of these questions will be discussed by authorities in an impartial, careful, interesting way.

FOURTH—ITS CHARACTER. McClure's Magazine is not edited for children, but at the same time, there is never a line in it that any young girl might not read. Its advertising pages are as clean as its editorial pages.

McClure's Magazine

in your home is intended to work only for good. Send $1.00 to-day for one year's subscription, or leave an order at your book-store. November and December free with new subscriptions for 1906.

You can earn a good income by taking up the business of securing subscribers for McClure's. It is clean and self-respecting—a publication any man or woman would like to represent.
